

War Is Not Expected To Be of Major Importance To Business of U.S.

EMBARGO BILL REPEAL WON'T HURT CANADA

Canadian Industry To Be Used To Full Extent Of Capacity

OTTAWA, Nov. 4.—Repeal of the United States arms embargo will mean a heavy flow of American war materials to Canada and her allies, but Canadian industry will be used to the full extent of its capacity to produce, according to informed circles here.

Final stages of the congressional procedure in Washington leading to removal of the ban of arms sales to belligerents were watched with keen interest by Canadian government officials and members of the British purchasing and air missions in Ottawa, but none would be quoted on their reactions.

TAKE ALL OUTPUT

It was learned, however, that the British purchasing mission, which has been here since early September, will look to Canadian government officials for what ever needs this country can supply, although welcoming the opportunity to tag the mission with the names of United States.

Wallace R. Campbell, chairman of the war supply board responsible for mobilizing industry on a removal of the ban, will be in the board's plans and will probably say it is the next step in a purchasing mission in Washington, a move generally expected.

Official circles insist that the United States will be taken for granted there will be immediate steps looking toward further purchases in the United States.

A British mission is expected to be set up in Washington to supervise purchasing but whether it will be made up of a part of the mission now in Canada or by another group of officials from England is not known.

FROZEN SLEEP NEW CURE FOR DRUG ADDICTION

Mental Troubles Can Be Cured By Treatment, Scientists Say

By HOWARD W. BLANKEN, Associated Press Science Editor, NEW YORK, Nov. 4.—Use of frozen sleep to cure narcotic addiction and mental trouble was announced here Friday. This is the first time new human liberation has been reported for any except cancer.

Disclosure of the new benefits came incidentally during a report on the cancer treatment at a symposium on temperature by doctors Temple Fay and L. W. Smith of Philadelphia, the men who originated the frozen sleep less than a year ago.

Each was put to sleep by packing in ice and the body temperature lowered to about 70. Each slept for five days. On awakening each was free from the desire for the narcotic. Two have remained free from the drug. The third, after six months, voluntarily went back to it. He was again put under liberation for five days and again woke up cured.

The mental case was a woman suffering from psychosis following a surgical operation. She was violent and screaming. Twenty-four hours of frozen sleep cleared her mind.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 4.—The United States neutrality bill, repealing the arms embargo, is expected to give a major boost to certain war industries in United States but many experts have warned business in general against expecting too much in the way of European buying.

The United States chamber of commerce said yesterday a supply of its membership showed "few look upon the war in Europe as of major importance insofar as business development in the United States is concerned."

ALERT TO BOOM DANGERS
The chamber's report noted business men were "alert to the dangers of boom but none were expecting too much in the way of European buying."

Government quarters have estimated a flood of orders totaling some $1,000,000,000 will be received in United States by the end of next week as a result of the embargo repeal.

The neutrality bill, with its restrictions on American shipping, is expected to cause widespread changes in the present policy of the merchant marine, although authorities differ as to just what the long-term effect will be. Ships will have to be withdrawn from certain lines, but some officials hope United States will be able to replace them by increasing commerce with Latin America and other parts of the world.

SHIPPING HARD HIT
Chairman Bland (Democrat-Virginia) of the House committee on commerce said yesterday that the repeal of the embargo will be a "heavy blow" to the shipping industry, but he added that the United States will be able to replace the ships withdrawn from certain lines by increasing commerce with Latin America and other parts of the world.

Lands In Films With High Notes

LONDON, Nov. 4.—The order of the British Empire awarded to Hugh Roberts, captain of the British freighter Mopan for the courage and skill demonstrated in the sinking of a vessel after a four-hour fight under fire from a German submarine.

The Mopan, according to the captain's official account, came to the surface shortly after 1 p.m. on a day not disclosed, about two miles from the British ship and opened fire.

ZIG-ZAGS VESSEL
Capt. Roberts ordered his men to take cover and then zig-zagged the Mopan to avoid the submarine's gunfire. The Mopan was hit by a direct hit, but the vessel continued to fight for more than a half hour.

By this time, the report continued, the Mopan had increased her speed to 14 knots. Her normal speed was 12½ knots. But emergency signals had been sent to the Mopan when the attack occurred.

For two hours the Mopan seemed to be slowly gaining, but it ended in a disaster. The vessel was almost lost because water was entering the low bow.

SUB GIVES UP LOW
The Mopan reached 18½ knots and began to draw ahead after three hours. When the U-boat was four miles away, she gave up the chase and disappeared.

The Mopan, built for West India United Kingdom trade, was en route to Britain from Jamaica when the attack occurred.

Weddings Highlight Early November Days

Miss Harris
Is Bride Of
Mr. C. Ross

BENEATH an archway of bronze and mauve chrysanthemums, ferns and palms, a very pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hales H. Ross on Friday evening, when Phyllis Mary Harris, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John G. Harris, became the bride of Clifford W. Ross, second son of Mr. and Mrs. Ross.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore an attractive gown of pink chiffon, with draped Grecian bodice and a full skirt, which hung in soft folds. She wore a chapel veil, and carried a shower bouquet of pale pink and dark red roses, with lilies of the valley.

white lace jacket. She carried a rosegay bouquet of roses, violets and lilies of the valley.

BEST MAN

Mr. Donald McKay supported the bridegroom.

The wedding marches were played by Miss Isabell Ross and Mr. Alexander Nicol. Miss Irene Smith, soloist, sang "Because" during the signing of the register.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs.

Mrs. Ross, mother of the bridegroom, chose a fuchsia lace gown, with matching jacket, and a shoulder corsage of talisman roses.

RECEPTION

Following the wedding ceremony reception to 100 guests was arranged.

Mrs. C. A. Rogers and Mrs. J. W.

The bride's table was laid in lace and centred with a three-tiered cake of red mauve and yellow tapers. Throughout the reception room were bronze and mauve chrysanthemums.

Mr. and Mrs. Ross have left on a motor trip to California and on their return they will reside in Edmonton.

CITY PROJECTS SLASH RELIEF FRY DECLARES

Unlike other mayors, he had received the full support of council during his two years of office, and had been able to materially improve the city's financial position through the safe and sane policies adopted by council.

Edmundson's hands, which stood at 68 when he took office, were now selling at 89 and steadily rising. This means a considerable amount to the person in Edmonton holding more than $1,000,000 worth of city bonds.

Calgary Power steadily agreed to come into the discussion at Westmount school when a member of the audience asked if the present council contemplated entering into an agreement with the power company.

Mayer Fry was emphatic in his reply that there would be no agreement with the power company unless on much better terms than any previous one, while Ald. G. A. Campbell stated he would not favor any agreement which would pay the Calgary Power company for the privilege of standby service. Any agreement will be on the basis of each party paying for the electrical energy purchased. He would not agree to any scheme which meant that the city would have power in the winter to the company and permit the company to dump power on the city during the summer months.

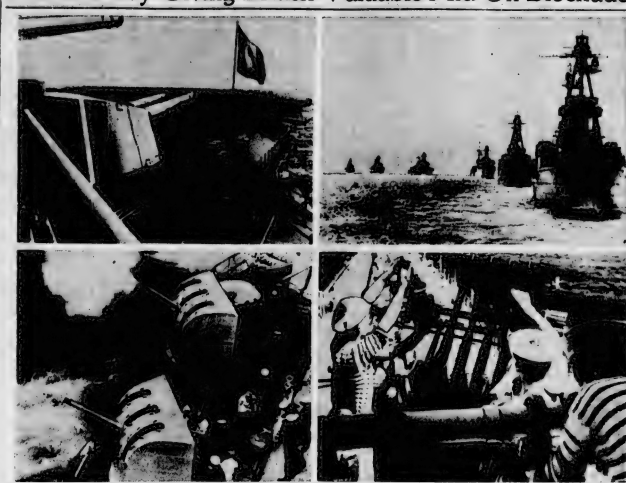

Dr. R. A. Ghosley, pinch-hitting for S. A. G. Barnes, majority candidate, who is ill, referred to Mr. Barnes' long service on the school board, and said that the Independent Progressive Association had a better chance to obtain release from the provincial government in revenues collected from Edmonton for amusement tax, liquor profits, etc., due to the fact Mr. Barnes accepted a seat in the legislature.

SCRAP ELECTIONS

Joseph A. Clarke, K.C. Independent alderman, predicted there would be a move in Edmonton to have municipal elections scrapped for the duration of the war after the Citizens' Committee had pledged council and school board in this election. He was critical also of council's policy of holding fewer meetings, and hurried a charge against council members that they had permitted a gambling joint to open on the ground floor on Jasper Avenue.

Ald. F. C. Caselman, Citizens' Committee, alderman, spent his allotted time in correcting statements made by Mr. Barnes on Thursday evening. He took exception to Mr. Barnes' statement that $12,000,000 of sinking fund money had been spent on improvements

French Navy Giving British Valuable Aid On Blockade

Although the accent is on the French army, France has a navy, too, and a good one, which is now co-operating with the British navy in maintaining a tight blockade around Germany. These pictures of the French navy are the latest permitted by French naval authorities and show ships of the Republic in various stages of action. Seen from the stern of a battleship, top left (name withheld), is a view of a French submarine that is a link in the blockade chain. The French submarine force is formidable, with a total of about 80 underwater craft, including mine-laying submarines. A line of mine-war, playing what a land-bomber would call "Follow the leader," is seen, top right. Anti-aircraft guns of a French battleship are shown in action, bottom left. The gun crews are protected by movable turrets. These guns are used against head-on targets, such as that presented by a plane diving down on a ship.

by council in the past two years.

The only part of Mr. Barnes' story that is correct, stated Mr. Caselman, is that there was $12,000,000 in liquid assets in the sinking fund and that $10,000,000 of that money is now left.

He said $12,000,000 was made available by the Fortin plan, and of this $4,000,000 was City of Edmonton bonds which were destroyed, thus lowering the city's debt by that amount. This left approximately $3,000,000 available under the plan for public works. City Council's share of this money was utilized to rehabilitate the telephone system, and extend the capacity of the power plant. The former job cost $1,800,000, the latter approximately $200,000.

WORKS FOR LABOR

W. Paddy Griffin, speaking for L. E. Brown, Citizens' Committee alderman candidate, referred to Ald. Brown's distinguished war record. He referred especially to the work done by Col. Brown on behalf of labor, and especially in his capacity as chairman of the relief committee.

Mrs. J. Ringwood, Independent Progressive Association alderman, said she did not come with a number of promises incapable of fulfillment, but sought support of the women on the ground that there should be a woman sitting on city council. She failed to understand why women did not take a greater interest in politics.

Soldier Interned

BRUSSELS, Nov. 4.—A French subaltern was arrested and interned yesterday when he crossed the frontier to take a drink in a Belgian cafe. The name of the town was not announced.

The program carried out gives the soldier a wide variety of entertainment, and has been accorded the best possible treatment within the scope of the council's financial power.

Youth Training Club Will Hold Another Dance

Due to the large number of members and their friends at the novelty dance staged in the Polish hall Wednesday evening, the Social Committee of the Youth Training Club is planning to hold a similar dance in about two weeks.

The Youth Training Club is holding regular meetings in the Y.M.C.A. at 8:15 each Wednesday evening. Officials are hoping that all old members and former trainees of the Youth Training scheme will attend the meetings.

The program carried out gives the soldier a wide variety of entertainment, and has been accorded the best possible treatment within the scope of the council's financial power.

Has No Effect On Debt To Dominion

OTTAWA, Nov. 4.—Decision of the Alberta government to provide

PASTOR LAUDS PROGRESS FOR C. G. I. T. GROUP

Praising the progressive work of the Canadian Girls In Training, in the fields of applied educational theory, illustrated by projects, enterprises, workshop service, and camp activities, Rev. T. H. McDermott addressed the opening session of the C.G.I.T. biennial conference at Central United Church Friday evening.

A challenge to adventure in the fields of bible instruction, personal devotion of leaders, and leadership training was presented to the conference by Mr. McDermott.

Open houses and discussion groups are arranged for the Saturday afternoon program, when guest speakers will be Watson Thompson, Group Living, Joe MacKenzie, Youth In The World of War, and Garth Walker and Jerry Huthinson in "The Church in The World of Nations."

A banquet will take place at 4 p.m., followed by discussion groups and vesper.

On Sunday the conference will continue at Ross Memorial Institute, Miss Lillian Crossenden, provincial secretary for girls work in Alberta, will be in charge of the leaders' church service Sunday evening.

Alberta Workers Demand Increase In Relief Rates

Demand the provincial government step up its relief food allowance to meet increased prices owing to war conditions was made by the Alberta Workers' Alliance, heavily unit, at a meeting held recently.

In a resolution unanimously passed by the Alliance the government was asked to redress its promise that "relief allowances" would be advanced in meet increases in prices due to war conditions.

The Alliance members also urged the government to speed up the work of the price control commission to prevent profiteering in essential foodstuffs.

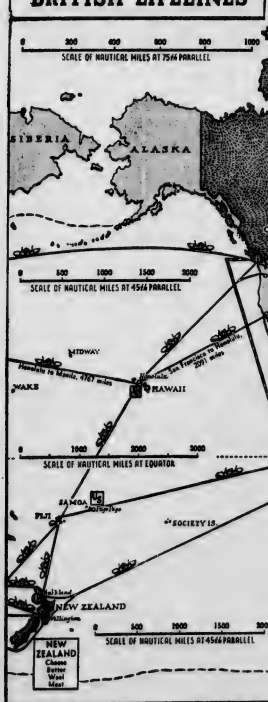

A moratorium on soldiers' debts and exempt soldiers' home property from taxation among other requests, were made.

The matter is considered wholly a provincial one. The view was taken, however, that the moratorium could not be effected due to Dominion government's on farm loans or other transactions. Neither could it affect the federal income tax.

Some officials revealed that during the first year some soldiers had a moratorium on interest on debts, but believed it general and not confined to soldiers.

Allies Must Clear These

BRITISH LIFELINES

WAR SUPPLY ROUTES

Of German Submarines And Raiders — Or Quit

MORE clearly than 10,000 words this map shows why the British navy does its darndest to bottle up the German navy in the Baltic — why any great submarine success or reports that German raiders are loose among the world's sea lanes can strike dread in the hearts of Englishmen. For the sea lanes not only tie the sprawling empire together — they also carry most of the supplies Britain needs to live, let alone to fight. The map shows which countries supply Britain with important percentages of these commodities. It was the Allies' ability to maintain their lifelines, and to cut Germany's, that spelled the difference between victory and defeat in the World War. At length Germany was starved into submission, though her submarine came within an ace of cutting the British lifelines in 1917, accounting for most of the seven billion dollars worth of shipping the Allies lost. On a typical pre-war day, according to a chart prepared by the British admiralty, more than 1,500 British vessels of 3,000 tons or more were plying the sea lanes shown, and ships of 100 tons or more numbered 9,700. So Britain can afford to lose a lot of ships — but she must keep these sea lanes open, or quit.

Wrong again," she murmured. He looked at her quietly. "I'm not going to let you go to a terrible tension that week. Five more days would bring the climax to Tesh's bid for an undated season. Playing a big-time schedule and winning the first seven would have been a pretty big feat. But he would be forgiven."

"But Bill Sholem wasn't the sort to let a little crack and go to his head," she said.

She received her Friday said Rev. Maish Kuzewitzky, 30, chief cantor of the synagogue, was killed by a German bomb during the recent Nazi capture of Warsaw.

Cantor Kuzewitzky, hailed as "the Jewish Curlew" and protégé of Jan Kipura, his fellow-countryman and Metropolitan opera tenor, sang at Carnegie Hall, New York, 1938. He was in Warsaw the largest synagogue in Warsaw.

A Word from Zeller's to the People of Edmonton!

OUR NEW HOME at the corner of 101st Street and 102nd Avenue will shortly be ready for our occupation. In the meantime we feel that the folks of Edmonton are entitled to know something more than the mere name of a business which hopes soon to enjoy their patronage. We therefore take this opportunity to tell you about ourselves.

THE COMPANY: Our business in Edmonton will be operated by Zeller's (Alta.) Limited, a recently incorporated, wholly owned subsidiary of Zeller's Limited. The latter company was incorporated in 1931 by Dominion of Canada Letters Patent, operates in Canada only and is not affiliated with any foreign organization. The Preferred and Common Shares are listed on the Montreal Stock Exchange.

Twenty-six stores are now in operation in the Provinces of Nova Scotia, New Brunswick, Quebec, Ontario and Manitoba; and the Company is pleased with this opportunity of being represented in the Province of Alberta with its twenty-seventh Store.

THE PRESIDENT

The President and Founder of the Company, Walter P. Zeller, is a Canadian. He was born in 1890 on the same farm in Ontario on which his Grandfather settled in 1831. He was educated in the Public and High Schools of that Province. He resides in Westmount, Quebec, and is a member of the following Clubs and Societies: Summerlea Golf Club, Seignior Club, Engineers Club, Montreal Kiwanis Club, A.F. & A.M., New Church (Swedenborgian).

TYPE OF STORE

The kind of store the Company operates is distinctive in that no attempt is made to carry all the diversified lines of the Department Store nor to confine the price range in the manner of the Price Limit Store. Broadly speaking, the field covered is between those two types of stores. This departure from established practice permits the Company to offer a wide range of general merchandise, both Fashionable and Staple, commonly known as being "Moderately Priced" and in "Popular Demand"; hence our trade slogan "Retailers to Thrifty Canadians".

COMPANY POLICIES

The policies of the Company are built around definite business ideals, of which the following are the cardinal points:

1. To constantly strive to supply the needs of the public for desirable merchandise at reasonable costs.
2. To recognize and fulfill our obligation to be truthful in all our statements to the public, whether through the medium of advertising or by word of mouth.
3. To progressively develop our efficiency in retailing so as to provide the highest possible reward for the interest and efforts of our employees and at the same time earn a fair return for our Stockholders who have entrusted their capital to our care.

These cardinal points are based on a full realization that in the last analysis our success depends entirely on our ability to become an Asset to the Community.

OPENING DATE: Splendid progress is being made by Edmonton Contractors in the remodelling of the premises we will occupy, and announcements regarding the opening date will appear in the Press in due course.

Looking Them Over

By Jack Kelly

Sturdy Flyers
Perking Up
Here and There

THE Kinks are coming out of the Edmonton Flyers as they work out weekly at the Arena under the direction of Coach Eddie O'Keefe and Manager Don Stuart. Driving power is taking the place of stiff muscles and the boys are starting to snap their passes back and forth with better precision and timing.

If you live your puck wranglers built on big, robust lines, then you will like our new Flyers. They are all large-frames that are fully up to standard measurements for any player force in the world. The substantial proportions of the Stuart Line is the first thing that takes your eye.

I know that big puckers often means slow pucksters, but from what the Flyers were showing in a well organized practice last night it doesn't seem that any of them can be charged with being tardy about getting across the ice. Being a bachelorette at heart, I never have been able to get lost about little fellows in a sport like hockey. You can have the fencers, I'll take the heavy armored tanks—provided of course that the said tanks have the power needed to reach their objectives.

Just now it looks as if the Flyers will be able to body-check most of their opposition into a semi-conscious condition by the time the third period rolls around. Don't get me wrong. I'm not going out on a limb. I'm just saying it looks as if the Flyers have what is needed to discourage other outfit's play. They haven't been testing any checks at each other yet and it may be that they haven't the necessary technique, but they sure have the weight and power required.

Furthermore, it strikes me that Coach Eddie O'Keefe has exactly the sort of material that his style of hockey will get the most out of. The Irish appreciates linemen as much as any one, but he still loves to hit 'em hard and watch 'em bounce.

There are still 18 players fighting out for regular berths on the team, but a couple will be dropped in another week or so. Sergeant Carr-Harris, Harry Brown, Jack Talbot, and Harry Pardee provided defense lines of Magnus proportions. Wait a fifth defence candidate who is also slightly substantial.

Then there is Edward O'Keefe himself, a doughy center who can really roll through opposition. Les Bird and Ducky Skinner, left and right wingmen respectively, are imports whom Bob Fritz would envy for his football line. Both of them are showing promise, he being most effective by the time whistles start blowing again out at the Arena. Last night they were trying Sunderland out at centre and the all-star veteran was showing a lot of it.

In the goals, Gordon Robbins and Scotty Munro are both stopping them like solid walls.

So, the Flyers are going to be hard to pick between the two for the starting position between the pipes.

Flyer Executives Named

A TEAM committee reflects the sort of organization that is behind it and from the same angle it seems that the new Edmonton Hockey Club is going to be a lot of good in this city.

The club consists of a group of business men who are determined to help semi-hockey along here. The recently named executive of the club, sponsoring the Flyers, consists of Ira Stuart as president, Lyle Groves as vice-president, J. R. Scouting as second vice-president, Garvin Walker as secretary, O. Macdonald as treasurer and Don Stuart as team manager.

The organization is small and compact enough to suit immediate and effective action can be obtained the minute a problem pops up. The value of this is in such a turbulent undertaking as senior hockey.

Scotty Brown Is Coast Coach

YOUR old pal, Scotty Brown, is making himself a bit of a name as a football coach out at Vancouver. You'll remember Scotty as a member of the Edmonia team that went east in 1933 in search of the Dominion football championships. He later coached the Junior Eskimos who were western leaders for three years under his training.

Scotty is coaching the Knights of Columbus team in the B. C. Football League and he has his last up in second place in the standings—tripped only by the Thunderbolts of Victoria last year. He writes that football in B. C. is not to be compared to the Western Conference.

Let us forget our Veterans, wear our poppy, Remembrance Day, November 11

Precious? Certainly!

When, during the reign of James I., clay pipes were first made in England, the bowls were only a quarter of an inch across—about the width of a cigarette! They were so small because tobacco was so precious. It cost three shillings an ounce. Three shillings then was worth eight shillings now. So, roughly speaking, tobacco 300 years ago cost the equivalent of $72.00 a pound.

In those days it was stated officially, "Some of the gentry bestow three and some four hundred pounds a year" on tobacco. Four hundred pounds under James I. had the same buying power as $12,000 under George VI. So, it was only "the gentry" who could enjoy tobacco.

Today smoking is among the most democratic of pleasures. And, through the unceasing efforts of the tobacco industry, the lowest-priced brands are far superior in fragrance and flavour to the best procurable 300 years ago... at that, half the money you pay for a package of cigarettes goes to the Federal Treasury.

Flyer or Elk?

The gent in between the pipes is Gordon Robbins and he's just as good as he looks in the above picture taken last night. He is the alarm centre of a controversy that will not, he is finally settled into the Alberta Hockey Association meets on Nov. 10. He is claimed by the Old Eds on the strength of last season's contract for which they charge he has not been released. He is also claimed by the Edmonton Flyers who maintain that he is under proper release. Robbins himself wants to play here where he has a regular year-around job.

Duke Keats Determined To Make Coleman Winner

COLEMAN, Nov. 4.—In a drive for a playoff spot, Coleman Canadians have appointed the hockey immortal, Gordon Blanchard "Duke" Keats as their 1939-40 coach and added at least half a dozen new faces to the latest edition of their entry in the Alberta Senior Hockey League.

I want a winning team, and I am going to get it," declared Keats, former star centre of the Edmonton Eskimos of the old western Canada professional league, Keats, who later played in the National Hockey League and managed the Edmonton team when the North-Western League was formed in 1935, was a referee in the Alberta senior circuit last year, retiring to take over the Coleman managerial reins.

Conditioned heavily used out of a playoff berth last year, will draw their main strength from nine hold-overs. The new material—three Edmontonians, two Winnipeggers and a player each from the Manitoba prairie and Ontario mining areas, may boost them into a winner.

ACCIDENTS HURT

A pair of cruel blows in the off-season dimmed Coleman's chances. Through the death of Mike Lough, coach they lost a reliable right winger and when Captain Jimmy Joyce received a serious arm injury in a goal line stop, physicians said the starly defenceman would not be able to play until Christmas.

Keats, known of the newcomers are Jimmy Sheppard, Herman

DUKE KEATS

Grubbs and Bud Wolfe. Sheppard is a retrained pro. Grubbs was a member of Winnipeg's Monarchs when they won the Memorial cup in 1937, and last year was on the star-studded Calgary Stampeder who topped so dimly. Wolfe, a goal-keeper, played junior hockey in Edmonton and senior in Calgary and Drumheller. He was inactive last year.

The other imports are Tommy Dunn, Edmonton junior; Mike Kewick, of Winnipeg; Barney Burness of Carmen, Man.; and Bob Loney of Drumheller, Ont.

TWO GOALIES

Dave Kemp, 31, last year's goalie or Wolfe will guard the net. Until Joyce returns, Ben Spangwill, right winger who was the team's second highest scorer last winter, will drop back to the defence.

"Duke" Keats, 35, 25-year-old Coleman homebrew, and Barney Loney, 11 defencemen on the Carmen team who were western Canada intermediate finalists last year, are the other "chick" troops.

Stanowski's Colorful Style Thrills Leaf Fans

By Dick Sheridan

TORONTO, Nov. 4.—If it was left for the crowd to say, Wally Stanowski would be a cinch to catch on as a regular with Toronto's National Hockey League Club. The former St. Boniface Seals junior with his swishing style of skating and adroit passing, was a prime favorite with most of the 12,181 fans who saw the Leafs officially open the season in an inter-club game here Thursday night.

TEST FOR SATURDAY

The game was in the nature of a test to determine which of the 22 players would line up against Boston in the NHL opener here Saturday. Proceeds of the game went to the Red Cross society.

Stanowski's team, the Whites, were beaten 6-4 by the Blues but that didn't detract from the Polish player's performance. A forward with Syracuse's International League team last year, Wally Thursday night was back on the defence—a position he played when the Seals beat Ottawa Generals for the Canadian junior championship and the Memorial cup in the spring of 1938.

And Stanowski showed all the thump he had as a junior. Within the space of a minute in the second period he dumped heading Buck McDonald to the ice twice and evaded cheers from the crowd.

McDonald, one of the most brilliant body-checkers in the N.H.L., found Stanowski by his left

SET UP GOAL

Wally also set up the play for his first goal, carrying the puck into the defence area and passing to Sweeney Schirmer who relayed to Pop Kelly the marksmen.

Wally's game night before a Toronto crowd for the first time the spectacle of Stanowski and Billy The Kid Taylor playing on the same team. Taylor led Ottawa in the National Hockey League last season, shared the headlines with Stanowski. Last spring when Ottawa won the title, Taylor had the headlines all to himself.

Billy didn't figure in any goals but played a sound game in the ice. And he doesn't have to forget to sidestep a body-checker, something he'll have to do if he is to carry his slight frame very far along pro hockey's bruising trail.

Sports . . . Roundup

NEW YORK, Nov. 4.—New York Post says the when and if the major league baseball season last looking for a successor to Judge K. M. Landis, the new president will be Frank Shinnear.

His predecessor the International League.

For real dizzy football reporting, you've got to hand it to the middle of the line. For instance, Red Rockwell reports in the Detroit Free Press that Michigan's Harmon to Bradwell touchdown pass is "specifically designed to obliterate the rival left-defensive half-back."

—well, that explains that. Papers all over are blasting the N.Y. Branching Commission for doing less than nothing about the Harry Thomas charge. R. G. Lynch writes in the Milwaukee Journal "they're too ready with the white-wash brush... that attitude in the N. Y. boxing state is white's worst with boxing".

—Bob Feller is raising a canny concern for commissions on the sale of a product he endorsed.

Manager Lester Patrick predicts his Rangers and Boston Bruins will fight it out again this season for the National League hockey championship—Americans and Toronto Maple Leafs will battle for third place with Detroit, Chicago and Canadiens in a three-cornered scramble for fifth, according to his figuring.

Manager Jack Hurley is proud of Billy Marquardt for more reasons than his fighting ability. Hurley boasts that the classy little Winnipeg gambler is an old-time fighter in every way. —Marquardt does his own dressing room chores, carries his own bag and has still to be given a rubdown.

STRIKE PROFITABLE

WORKINGTON, England.—One of the shortest sales for the 12-hour holiday staged by six professionals of a football club, who wanted another five shillings (41.12) for the game. Ralston held up the match, the management gave in.

Coleman's Bill Fraser, a real opportunist, and Danny Redsky, a native of Trehear, Man., are outlanders retained from last year. They will be relieved by Mike Mowbrak, a former of St. Louis, Eaten Dick, and Bob Loney.

Grubbs and Dunn play right wing but the leading candidate for that spot is Sid Smith, a youngster who is expected to develop into a star under Keats' tutelage.

"Bunny" McKillop and "Sandy" Sanderson, both better than average players, along with Johnny Sheppard, former player of Detroit Red Wings and New York Americans, will patrol the left wing lanes.

SIX ALL-STARS

Six Bombers Placed On West's Honor Roll

By Charles Edwards
Canadian Press Staff Writer

WINNIPEG, Nov. 4.—Halfback Paul Rowe of Calgary, Brokens and Middle Winger Martin Griffin of Winnipeg Blue Bombers are no outstanding this season that coaches and sports editors selecting the third annual Canadian Press all-star Western Interprovincial Football Union team gave them unanimous recognition.

Rowe, Victoria boy who formerly played with University of Oregon, won the individual scoring title with 61 points through punting and place-kicking. Gainer has been an all-star selection each year since he came to Bombers in 1937 from University of North Dakota and last year was the only unanimous choice.

Selectors recognized the power which gave Winnipeg 10 wins in 12 scheduled games, by placing six Bombers on the all-star team. Calgary's Regina Roughriders and Edmonton Eskimos each have two representatives.

THE TEAM

Flying wing—Jeff Nicklin, Winnipeg.

Half—Paul Rowe, Winnipeg.

Half—Howard Cleveland, Regina.

Half—Fitz Hamilton, Winnipeg.

Quarter—Wayne Shiley, Winnipeg.

Inside—Johnny McKee, Calgary.

Inside—Greg Koak, Winnipeg.

Inside—Russ Wile, Edmonton.

Middle—Gordon Gehlke, Edmonton.

Outside—Bud Marquardt, Winnipeg.

Outside—Rolly Koberg, Regina.

Gainer, Hanson and Nicklin have been members of all six western all-star teams. Hanson, whose seasonal running game Winnipeg's Canadian championship at Hamilton in 1938, was used sparingly early this year but scored seven touchdowns in the last three games and took second place in scoring with 61 points.

NICKLIN CLIMBS

Nicklin, chosen at outside the last two years, was moved to flying wing by Coach Reg Threlkeld and scored 61 points in his first backfield season.

A great lineman at Wisconsin University before he came to Winnipeg in 1933, Koberg was all-star flying wing last year. This season Threlkeld used him as blocking back and as inside wing on defence and occasionally on offence. He made the team at the line position.

Quarterback Art Stevenson of

Winnipeg and Snop Dean Griffing and Middle Bud Walker of Regina mixed selection after two all-star years. Stevenson and Walker were benched with injuries for long periods. McKee, formerly of Wilkesboro, Pennsylvania, was more consistent than Griffing.

CLEVELAND REGISTERS

The fine passing and running of Howard Cleveland, former Kansas State star, was a major factor in leading Regina to today's semi-final with Calgary and earned him all but two votes. Shiley, who came to Bombers last year from Augustana college, South Dakota, was chosen seventh although he also received two votes at half.

Edmonton's line strength was shown in the placing of Wile and Gehlke and the prominent mention given Bud Wile. Wile, a first stringer with Minnesota Gophers in 1935, went to Edmonton this year as line backer. Gehlke, in his second year with Eskimos, played formerly at St. Thomas college, Minnesota.

Marquardt, who won an outside berth in 1937 but missed last year, had a great season at him all but one vote. Edmonia, whose play at University of South Dakota last year was with a broken neck suffered in an English rugby game.
